

About Gulf Medical University

Gulf Medical University is celebrating 22 years of Excellence and has grown phenomenally in a span of a little over two decades with a vision to be a leading international Academic Health System and a mission to pursue excellence through the integration of health professions education, translational research, quality healthcare, innovation, and social accountability enhanced by national, international partnerships, and community engagement, maintaining our core niche in the health sector.

GMU has over 1800 students from 86 different nationalities and offers 19 accredited Undergraduate and Graduate programs run by the 6 constituent colleges in the field of medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, physiotherapy, nursing, biomedical sciences, medical laboratory sciences, medical imaging sciences, anesthesia technology, public health and healthcare management & economics .

Our Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) Program Outcomes are aligned to the World Federation of Medical Education (WFME) Standards. Our Bachelor of Biomedical Sciences Program is accredited by the Institute of Biomedical Science (IBMS), UK and our PharmD Program is certified by Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), USA. Our hospitals are JCI accredited and our Laboratories are CAP accredited.

The creation of the Thumbay Medicity with the our establishment of chain of - Thumbay Clinics , day-care centers, pharmacies, laboratories are all value additions

The Thumbay Research Institute of Precision Medicine Research is the hub for postgraduate studies in Biomedical Sciences, translational research and innovation.

The national, international, and regional engagements exceed 68 collaborations with top international universities in Europe, United States, Japan, Malaysia and Far East.

Our alumni remain our best ambassadors. Our 1800+ graduates are well placed across the globe including many practicing in the country and the region contributing to the health economy of the nation and the region which aligns with our vision and mission.

